Dear Students, Faculty, and Administration:

After 2 years of hard work, this edition of Spire is finally complete. Working on this Spire proved to me that it not only takes skill and imagination to complete a yearbook, but, more importantly, responsibility and endurance. It also takes the interest of the student body to make a yearbook possible. In part, it is the responsibility of the college personnel and organizations to help produce the book by submitting pictures.

The production of a yearbook is not, and shouldn't be, simply the responsibility of one person, but that of all whom it affects. Our Spire reflects the interest and pride we have in the Abbey. It is a portrayal of what exists here.

I'd like to thank Rebecca Grimes for all her guidance and enthusiasm right to the very end.

I'd also like to thank Father Mauricio West, O.S.B., for his patience, consideration, and efficiency in getting pictures to me.

The help of Rebecca and Fr. Mo certainly encouraged me to continue working. The best way I could think of to show my appreciation was by dedicating this book to both of them, as they were dedicated in helping me complete it.

It is almost impossible to name all the students who have contributed to this book. The people whom I feel deserve recognition for their contributions are the following:

Karen Camus
Judy Caufield
Linnanne Caufield
Monica Costea
Sally Falta
Jim Kirby
Robert Kotula
Perry Lee Mitchell
Jo Anne Newman
Robert Richter
Sandra Roberts
Eileen Russell

Frank DiTullio

A special thanks and acknowledgement goes to my father, Mr. Frank DiTullio, for his outstanding work in designing the front cover of this book.

Again, thank you to everyone who helped on this Spire. I feel a great sense of achievement in it being complete and hope it will be enjoyed for a very long time.

Sincerely,

Linda DiTullio

Our 50th year, and we have a yarn to spin.

For 50 years now, we've been appearing in more and more places.

While you may never see the Ti-Caro name in the products you buy, our yarns, industrial sewing threads and a myriad of knit fabrics show up practically everywhere. Most name brand apparel manufacturers use our products in some way.

You'll even find our products in baseballs, luggage, furniture and automobiles.

We're a company of nearly 6,000 people in 24 plants in the Carolinas and Puerto Rico and in sales offices and distribution centers nationwide and in Europe. Our stock is traded on the New York Stock Exchange, ticker symbol "TCX."

In our communities, Ti-Caro, as well as its employees, is active.

Ti-Caro, Inc. We'd like for you to know us better.

ABBEY SOCCER

The soccer team had a successful season in that it concluded on a winning note. The final record was 10-7-1. This record does not indicate the talent of the competition in that 5 of the 7 losses were to nationally ranked teams or university level schools. The Abbey did not qualify for the district playoffs despite finishing 6-2 in the district because of a playoff system which is being abolished. The current team is still very young and will consist of only four seniors next year. Recruiting for next season will seek to add a consistent punch to the attack.
